To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations, we may require that you provide us with nonpublic, personal, identifying information. We may also lawfully obtain information about you from other sources. If you do not respond to such requests promptly, your transaction may be subject to cancellation.

3. Authorization. You authorize us to make any inquiries, to you or to others, that we determine are reasonably necessary to validate the information that you provide to us. We reserve the right to request additional information from you to verify your identity against third-party databases or through other sources, and to require you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or Payment Instrument.

6\ SENDING A TRANSACTION

1. General. Using your Remitly Account, you can send money to a Recipient by providing us with information about you and a Recipient. You can send money to a Recipient, and a Recipient can receive funds sent by you, even if they do not have a Remitly Account or use the Service.

2. Processing Your Transactions. If you submit a Transaction, you are requesting that we process that Transaction. For you to initiate a Transaction through the Service and for us to process a Transaction on your behalf, you must provide us with information about a valid Payment Instrument that you want to use to fund your Transaction through your Remitly Account. If we are unable to process your Transaction using the Payment Instrument you select, we will notify you and request that you choose another Payment Instrument to complete your transaction. You agree that we may accept or reject your offer to process your Transaction under the terms of this Agreement. We are not under any obligation to carry out any Transaction that you request if, for example, you have broken any of your obligations set out in this Agreement.

You need to provide us with the Transaction funds after you submit your Transaction, before we can process it. We will only process your Transaction if we have received timely and sufficient cleared funds linked to your submitted Transaction and in accordance with this Agreement. If you send us funds before submitting a Transaction, we will attempt to return them to you. You are responsible for ensuring that your transfer is funded on time and with the exact amount corresponding to the Transaction. We are not responsible for any funds you send us until we have actually received them. We are not liable for any delays caused by your bank, a third-party bank, or a payment service provider in transferring funds to us.

3. Cut-off time. Your Transaction request may be subject to a cut-off time. If we receive your Transaction request after the applicable cut-off time on a business day or on a non-business day in Japan (e.g., a weekend or public holiday), it will be deemed received on the next business day or at a later time as determined by us.

4. Payment via Bank Transfer. When you fund a Transaction and/or pay any service fees using a bank transfer as the Payment Instrument, we will process the Transaction only after receiving the exact amount of funds corresponding to the Transaction in the specified account provided on the transfer details screen.

5. Bank Account Payment Authorization. When you fund a Transaction and/or pay any Service Fees using your bank account as the Payment Instrument, you authorize the initiation of credit entries, as applicable, to that bank account in accordance with any payment instructions you provide, and the crediting of funds to your bank account for Transactions that are refunded, canceled or otherwise returned.

6. Card Payment Authorization. When you fund a Transaction and/or pay any Service Fees using a debit card, you authorize us, for the purpose of processing your Transaction, to debit or charge that Payment Instrument to fund the Transaction by the amount you specify, plus any Service Fees, and to send those funds to the designated Recipient immediately upon our receipt of the Transaction. You can withdraw your authorization for us to charge your debit card by removing it from your Remitly Account. If your payment fails, you authorize us to re-try one or more times using the same debit card, subject to limitations under applicable law.

7. Remitly's Liability. When you send a Transaction through our Service, it is your responsibility to make sure that all the Transaction details are complete, accurate, and correct (including, without limitation, the Recipient's information and the Recipient's banking or other account details) as we may not be able to let you change the details of your Transaction once it is submitted to us for processing.

To the extent allowed by law, you agree to be bound by all payment instructions or Transactions that are initiated through the Service from your Remitly Account. You must make sure that all payment instructions for your Transactions are correct and accurate.

You are solely responsible for entering the correct information for the Recipient to whom you are sending money. Subject to applicable law, you, not Remitly, are responsible for any amounts that are transferred to the incorrect person because you entered incorrect information related to the Recipient for a Transaction.

Subject to limitations under applicable law, Remitly shall not be liable for a failure to complete Transactions in the following circumstances:

- your payment instructions contain inaccurate instructions, mistakes, or insufficient information; or
- your chosen Payment Instrument does not have sufficient funds to pay for a Transaction you initiate through the Service.

7\ . PAYING FOR THE SERVICE

1. Our Service Fee. In consideration for providing you with our Service, you agree to pay us a service fee (a "Service Fee") for each Transaction you submit, in addition to the Transaction Amount. Details on the discrete Service Fee amount related to a specific Transaction will be made available to you in our Mobile App or website before you give us your consent to execute your Transaction. Payment in Japanese yen is due and payable by you to us at the time the Transaction is submitted for processing. Service Fees may vary based on Recipient country and other factors and are subject to change.

2. Other Charges. We are not responsible for fees that may be imposed by financial institutions associated with your Payment Instruments. For example, some debit card issuers may treat the use of your debit card to use the Service as a "cash advance" and may impose additional fees and interest costs for the transaction. Remitly is not responsible for any non-sufficient funds fees ("NSF Fees"), chargeback fees, or other, similar charges that might be imposed on you by your bank, debit card issuer, or other provider. If you submit a Transaction that results in Remitly being charged a fee or another amount because of your Payment Instrument not being used in an authorized manner, or with insufficient funds, we will notify you of the fee we were charged, and you agree to pay us the equivalent amount.

3. Foreign Currency Exchange. We and our Service Providers (defined below) may make money when you pay for a Transaction in one currency and the Transaction is paid out in another currency because of the difference between the exchange rate at which we buy foreign currency and the exchange rate provided to you at the time of your Transaction. Exchange rates may vary based on Recipient country and other factors and are subject to change. If a foreign currency exchange rate applies to a Transaction that you request, it will be disclosed to you before you authorize the Transaction.

4. Third-Party Fees and Charges. When you use our Service, other third parties may level fees, costs, or other liabilities against you. These third-parties may include your bank, card issuer, phone provider, or internet service provider. For example, your phone and/or internet service provider may charge you fees relating to data or messaging services. You (and not Remitly) are responsible for any fees, charges, costs, and/or expenses charged by such third parties in connection with your use of our Service. Please check your agreements with these third-party providers for details on any of these additional costs.

8\ . RECEIVING A REMITTANCE

1. Service Providers. We work with local banks and other third-party outlets (each, a "Service Provider") to make funds available to Recipients. We try to provide current information on our website about the location, availability, and hours of our Service Providers. Please note that these may be subject to change without our knowing, and we are not responsible for any inaccurate or incomplete information that may be posted on the website.

2. Verification of Recipients. Recipients may be required to provide information, such as a valid identification, to verify their identities to our Service Providers before receiving funds. Recipients may also be required to provide a reference number or another similar identifier associated with the applicable Transactions.

3. Expired Transactions. We will cancel Transactions where funds are made available to Recipients by way of cash pick-up if the funds are not validly collected within 60 calendar days of when they were first made available. To the extent possible for these expired transactions, we will refund the full Transaction Amount, taxes, and any Service Fees that you paid as part of the Transaction.

9\ . IMPORTANT SERVICE RESTRICTIONS

1. Our Right to Limit Your Use of Our Service. In addition to the limitations described elsewhere in this Agreement, we may refuse to process any Transaction in our sole discretion where we have a reasonable belief or a reasonable basis to believe, that it is necessary to protect you and/or us or when it is otherwise required so that we may comply with legal or regulatory requirements. You agree that we limit the amount to be transferred to one million yen (JPY 1,000,000) on a per transaction basis and we may also limit the amount to be transferred on an aggregated basis. These limits may be imposed on individual Remitly Accounts or specific Payment Instruments in your Remitly Account. We also reserve the right at any time to modify or discontinue all or any part of the Service.

2. Delays. We have the sole discretion to delay your Transaction, in accordance with applicable law, to verify your identity, validate your Payment Instrument, manage our financial risk, or if we believe that the Transaction may involve fraud or that a crime or violation of law, rule, or regulation has occurred, is occurring, or may occur. Depending on the reason for a delay or a failure to make the funds available to the Recipient, you may be entitled to a refund or other remedies in certain circumstances.

3. Transfer Speed. Any transfer speed information or estimates for any of your Transactions that we provide to you on our website or in our Mobile App are estimates of the delivery date and time based on payment method, delivery method, transaction review, and system availability of Remitly, our partners and Service Providers. In addition to any transfer speed information and estimates we provide during the send process, before you submit a Transaction, and in your Transaction receipt, we will provide you with an exact date and time when you can expect your money to be delivered to your Recipient.

4. Commercial Transactions. We are not responsible for the quality or delivery of goods or services for which you pay a Recipient by using the Service. You accept that using the Service to transfer funds for payments for goods and services is at your own risk.

5. Ineligibility. To comply with applicable laws and regulations, we may refuse Transactions from certain Senders and to certain Recipients that are included on the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons list, Non-Cooperative Countries and Territories list, and such other lists as issued by different government agencies or that fall under Anti-Social Forces.

6. No Changes. We generally do not let you change the details of your Transaction once it is submitted to us for processing. It is your responsibility to make sure your Transaction details are accurate. Pursuant to Section 6 and other Sections of this Agreement, you, and not Remitly, shall be responsible for any incorrect information or mistakes that you make when entering information about the Recipient for a Transaction. Nothing in this Agreement, however, shall be construed to limit your rights with respect to canceling Transactions or asserting an error with respect to a Transaction under applicable law.

7. Prohibited Activities. In connection with your use of our website or the Service, or in the course of your interactions with Remitly, we treat the following as Prohibited Activities, (each, a “Prohibited Activity”) and you will not:
