3\ Getting Started and Using our Business Service

Account Creation. To use the Service, you are required to create a Remitly Business Account. You can only create a Remitly Business Account on Remitly's website and through our Mobile Application. To create a Remitly Business Account and use the Service, you may be required to provide us with information about your business, including but not limited to your business name, business address, Doing Business As ("d/b/a") name, BN, jurisdiction of establishment, description of business, and entity type. Your Remitly Business Account allows us to record certain information about you, as explained in our Privacy Policy. You may also be required to provide information on Beneficial Owner(s) and Control Person(s) of your business, including full name, address, and date of birth. If such information changes, you must contact Customer Service to update your information.

To create a Remitly Business Account, you are responsible for and you must:

- Provide us with complete, accurate, and truthful information as requested by us. The information you provide will also be used by us to determine if you are eligible to use our Service;
- Create security credentials, such as a password or personal identification number, that Remitly deems necessary ("Security Credentials") and/or downloading our Mobile Application;

When appropriate for making a payment through the Service, you must also provide us with information about your payment instruments such as your bank account, or debit or credit card (collectively, "Payment Instruments"). When you provide us information about your Payment Instrument for the purpose of using the Service, you consent to Remitly storing that information on file for use for funds transfers. In addition, you represent and warrant that:

- each Payment Instrument is valid, has not expired, and is otherwise in good standing;
- you are an authorized and lawful user of each Payment Instrument;
- each transaction that you request through the Service complies with this Agreement and applicable laws, regulations, and rules; and
- you will carry out any other action which we, or our third-party Service Providers (defined below), may reasonably require for you to access and use the Service.

Security of Your Remitly Business Account. You are solely responsible for safeguarding your Security Credentials. You will immediately notify us of any unauthorized use of your password or Remitly Business Account or any other security breach by contacting us through our Help Center.

Control Person; Authority to Act on Behalf of Your Business; Authorized User. You confirm that you are a control person of this business. When we refer to a control person, we mean that you are a person with significant responsibility for managing this business.

You confirm you or those you have approved to use this account will be the sole user(s) of this account on behalf of this business. You confirm that you have authority to bind the business on whose behalf you use our Service, and the business accepts the terms of this Agreement. We may ask you at any time to provide proof of such authority.

You are responsible for all activities that occur under your Business Account. Granting permission to access your Remitly Business Account does not relieve you of your responsibilities under this Agreement, including notifying us if your Remitly Business Account has been compromised or if a transaction is suspected to be incorrect or unauthorized.

You Must Use Our Services for Your Business Only. You must not create a Remitly Business Account and must not submit a transaction on behalf of any other business or in your personal capacity. This Service is only made available to valid businesses, meaning for use by business customers in their corporate or commercial capacity. By using our Service for any other purpose, you are in breach of this Agreement. We reserve the right to terminate your Remitly Business Account, suspend, or stop providing our Service to you, or otherwise stop your use of our Service at any time without liability to you.

4\ Paying for the Service

1. Charges. With each transaction you submit you are agreeing to pay us a service fee ("Service Fee"), in addition to the transaction amount.

Payment in Canadian dollars is due at the time the transaction is submitted for processing. If you submit a transaction that results in us being charged NSF fees, chargeback fees, or other similar costs, you agree to reimburse Remitly for all such fees.

1. Payment. For us to process your transaction you authorize us to charge any of the payment instruments included in your payment profile ("Payment Instrument" includes credit card, debit card, or bank account). If your payment fails, you authorize us to re-try one or more times using the same Payment Instrument. You warrant that you are an authorized and lawful user of the Payment Instrument(s).

2. Other Charges. We are not responsible for fees that may be imposed by financial institutions associated with your Payment Instruments. For example, some credit card issuers may treat the use of your credit card to use the Service as a "cash advance" and may impose additional fees or charges for the transaction. Remitly is not responsible for any non-sufficient funds (NSF) fees, chargeback fees, or other, similar charges that might be imposed on you by your bank, credit card issuer, or other provider.

5\ Pre-Authorized Debit Authorization

1. Pre-Authorized Debit ("PAD"). By entering your bank account number and related information as your Payment Instrument into your account's payment profile, you authorize us to begin debiting your Payment Instrument for charges with respect to your use of the Service.

In accordance with the Rules of Payments Canada ("Rules"), we will obtain your authorization for any sporadic debits. To that end, you acknowledge that your instructions for a transaction and your use of the Service will constitute valid authorization for us to debit your Payment Instrument for the amounts and on the dates such amounts become due and owing (or, if such date is on a weekend or a statutory holiday, on the next business day).

This PAD authorization ("Authorization") constitutes your agreement and authorization for Remitly to debit your Payment Instrument and is effective as of the date you provide Remitly with your Payment Instrument information. You acknowledge that this is a Business PAD drawn for the payment of goods or services related to your business. You represent and warrant to us on a continuing basis that (i) the bank account designated as your Payment Instrument is maintained in your name; (ii) that under the terms of your bank account agreement with your Financial Institution you are the authorized signatory on the bank account who can authorize the debits under this Authorization; (iii) that all persons whose consent to debit the Payment Instrument agree to the terms of this Authorization and (iv) that the Payment Instrument information provided by you is accurate and complete. This Authorization shall apply to any Payment Instrument entered into your payment profile.

You agree to promptly notify us of any changes to your Payment Instrument and/or to provide a new Payment Instrument acceptable to us for which you authorize payments for amounts owing to us. In the event we make an error in processing any payment from your Payment Instrument, you authorize us to initiate a corrected debit or credit on your Payment Instrument, as applicable, to correct the error in accordance with the Rules.

1. Debit of Payment Instrument. You acknowledge that this Authorization is provided for the benefit of Remitly and your financial institution ("Financial Institution") and is provided in consideration of your Financial Institution agreeing to process all debits against your Payment Instrument in accordance with the Rules. This Authorization applies only to the method of payment and does not otherwise affect your obligations to us under this Agreement or related agreements.

2. Authorization and Waiver of Pre-Notification. You authorize us to debit your Payment Instrument for all amounts owed to us from time to time for your use of the Service, including the transaction amount and any Service Fees. AS THE PAYMENT AMOUNT FOR THE SERVICE IS VARIABLE, YOU AGREE TO WAIVE PRE-NOTIFICATION OF ANY PAYMENT AMOUNT, THE DATES ON WHICH THE DEBITS WILL BE PROCESSED, AS WELL AS NOTICE OF ANY FUTURE CHANGES TO THE AMOUNTS OR PAYMENT DATES. YOU ALSO AGREE THAT A CONFIRMATION WILL BE PROVIDED TO YOU WITHIN 5 CALENDAR DAYS AFTER THE FIRST PAD.

3. Cancellation. This Authorization shall remain in full force and effect until we have received written notification from you of its termination in such time and in such manner as to afford us a reasonable opportunity to act on it. You may cancel this Authorization at any time by closing your Remitly Business Account. You may obtain a sample cancellation form, or more information on your rights to cancel this PAD agreement, by contacting your Financial Institution or by visiting www.cdnpay.ca. You acknowledge that cancellation of this Authorization does not terminate this Agreement or relieve you of any obligation to pay all amounts owing to us by a method of payment satisfactory to us.

4. Delivery. You acknowledge that providing this Authorization to us constitutes delivery by you of this Authorization to your Financial Institution. You understand that your Financial Institution is not required to verify that each PAD submitted by us has been issued in accordance with this Authorization, including, but not limited to, the amount, or that the purpose of payment for which the PAD was submitted has been fulfilled by us as a condition of honouring the PAD against your Payment Instrument. You agree to receive confirmation of this PAD Authorization by email.

5. Recourse. You have certain recourse rights if any debit does not comply with this Agreement. For example, you have the right to receive reimbursement for any debit that is not authorized or is not consistent with this PAD agreement. To obtain more information on your recourse rights, you may contact your Financial Institution or visit www.cdnpay.ca.

To be reimbursed, you acknowledge that a declaration must be completed and presented to your Financial Institution issuing the Payment Instrument within 10 days after the date on which the PAD in dispute was posted to the Payment Instrument. You acknowledge that after 10 days any dispute of a PAD is a matter to be resolved solely between you and Remitly.

Contact. If you have any questions regarding this Authorization, please contact us at Customer Service; by telephone at 1-888-736-4859 (or 1 (206) 535-6152); or by mail at Remitly Canada, Inc., attn: Customer Service (Canada), 401 Union Street, Suite 1000, Seattle WA 98101, USA.
